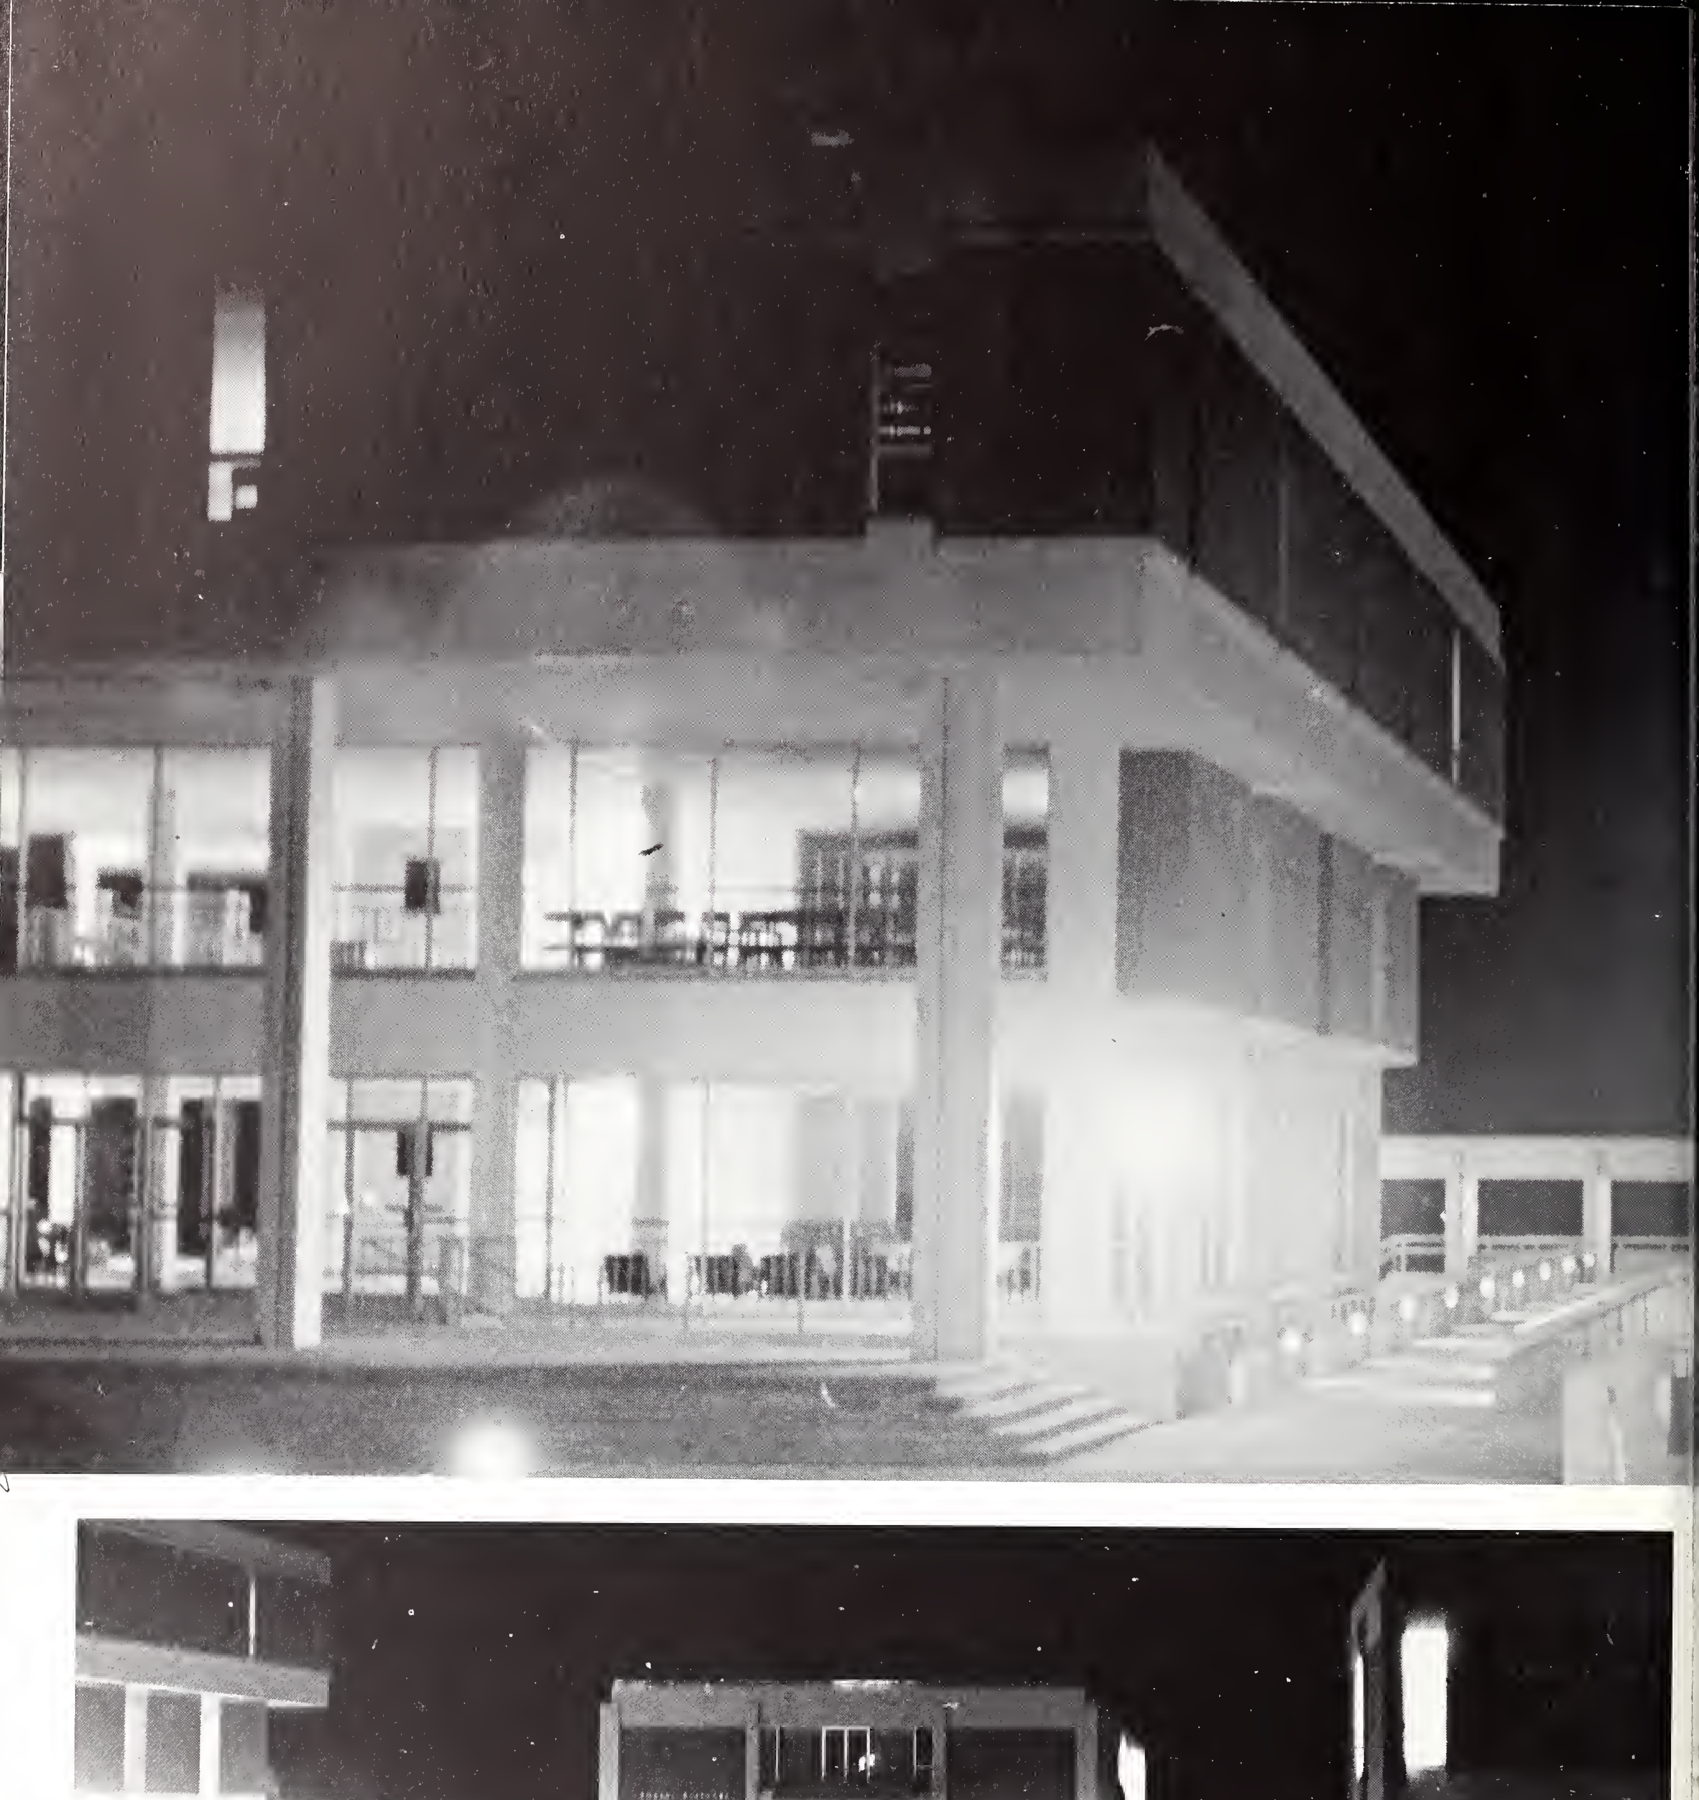
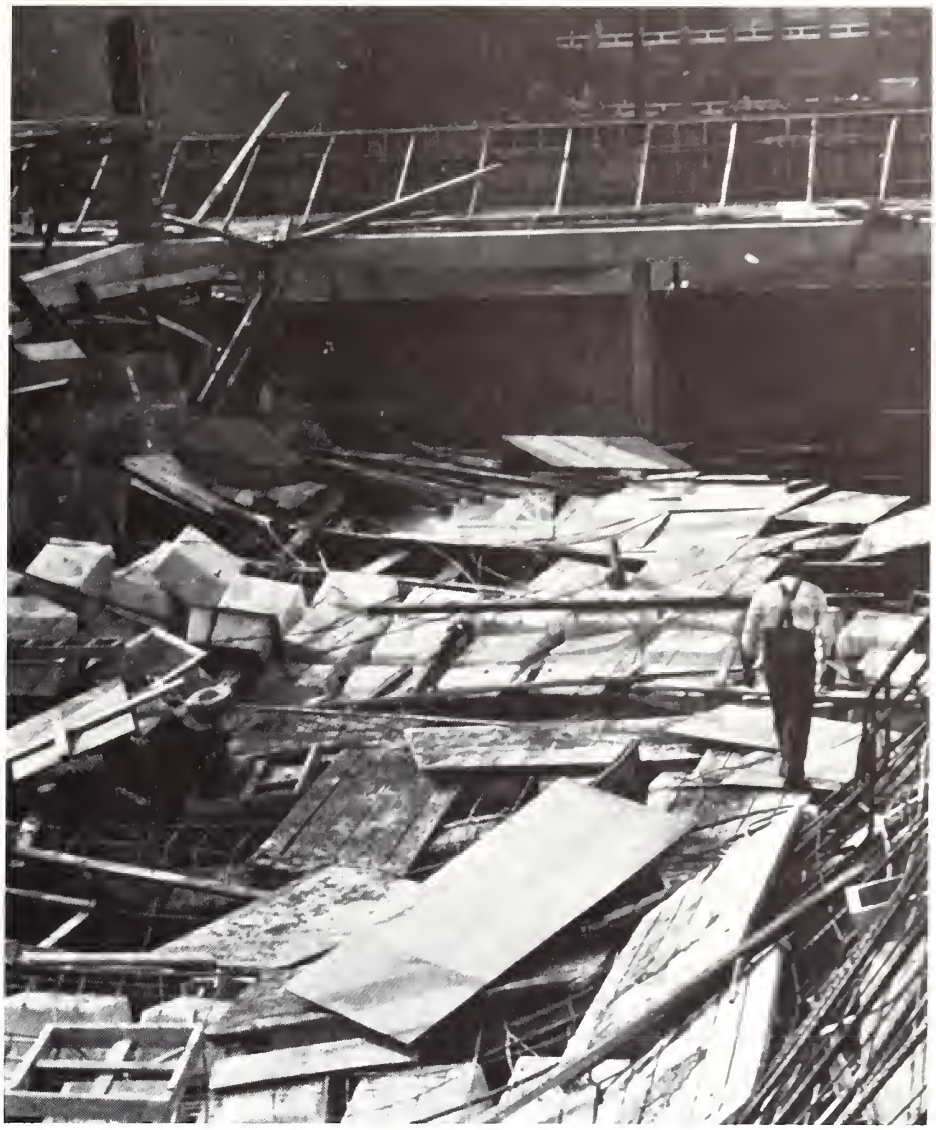
1968-1969





On June 21, 1968, the new three-building academic complex opened to the West Georgia College students and faculty. The complex includes a four-level, 300,000 volume capacity library, a social science classroom building, and a mathematics-physics classroom building. The three structures are connected by covered walkways at two levels, and together form a major portion of the back campus quadrangle now taking shape.

The new Classroom-Arts building, although delayed by this collapse, is planned for use next fall quarter.

RAT WEEK

CANCELLED

A capacity, enthusiastic, crowd filled the HPE Building on October, 22, 1968, to hear the Lettermen who opened with "UP, Up, and Away," followed by "Softly," "Taste of Honey," and "Up the Lazy River." Each performer had his own solo which led the listeners through a range of emotions from love to inspiration, ending with a tremendous finale of "Born Free."

As 3500 students looked on, a small, long-haired figure walked onto the stage and began strumming unfamiliar tunes on the guitar; however, when he broke into "Seventh Son" there were no doubts as to who he was, and the crowd went wild. This was JOHNNY RIVERS.

STATE

Spirit of WGC

The spirit at West Georgia was high as students and alumni united for the 5th annual homecoming winter quarter. Activities ranged from a bon-fire and parade, to a semi-formal dance highlighted by the crowning of Miss Kay Weaver as homecoming queen. The WGC Braves thrilled the crowd by their 75-57 victory over the Georgia State Panthers.

Fraternities and Sororities emerged this year on the West Georgia College scene. The Fraternities and Sororities are as follows: Cavaliers, Delta Kappa, Kappa Phi, Sigma Alpha Omega, Sigma Tau Delta, Alpha Phi Rho, Phi Delta, Phi Kappa Zeta, Phi Sigma Delta, and Sigma Chi Omega. Both Fall and Winter quarters an IFC sponsored rush was held during which time qualified students had an opportunity to pledge the various clubs.

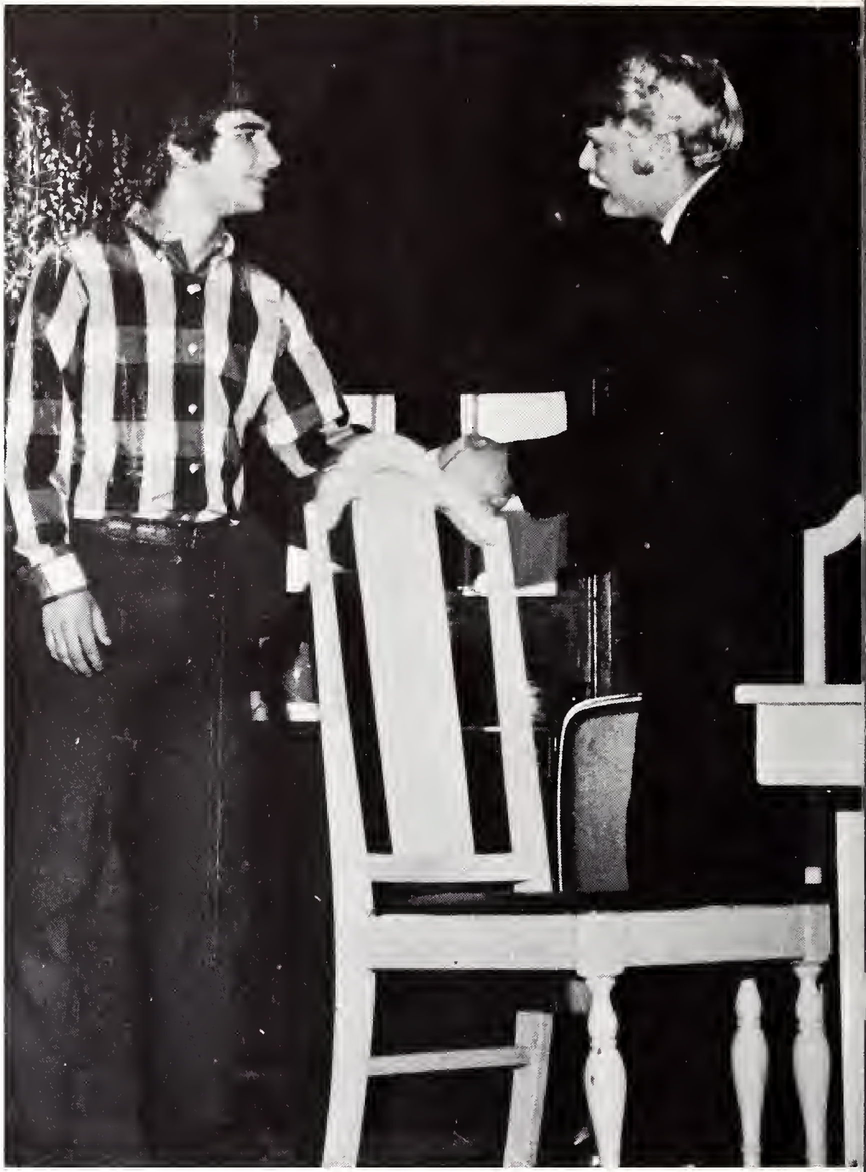
"Dark of the Moon" was presented Spring Quarter 1968 on May 1, 2, and 3, to overflow crowds. The play was the first event of Fine Arts week. Linda Smith and Neal Horsley starred in the play.

Moliere's French comedy, "Tartuffe" was presented on the nights of November 21, 22, and 23, Fall Quarter 1968. Clay Springfield and Linda Smith were featured in the production, which was directed by Wallace Buice.

Mike Holt, Jay Reardon, Dana Rhodes, Kevin Buice, Diane Greene, and Jerry Pitts were featured in, "A Thousand Clowns." The production of Alpha Theta was presented March 6, 7, and 8.

Fall quarter featured a special production of John Osborne's Look Back in Anger, directed by Nelson A. Carpenter. This play was chosen as an entry in the regional competition of the American College Theatre Festival held at Spellman College in Atlanta.

The cast consisted of Larry Bowie, Larry Tilley, Daneise Hubert, Susan Wroble, and Lee Howell.



Among the events occurring during the early part of the school year was the first Christmas tree lighting on the West Georgia College campus. Sponsored by The Young Marrieds, the Christmas program featured: Dr. Boyd lighting the tree in front of the Student Center, the West Georgia College Choir, and, of course, Santa Claus.

On January 15, Ted Sorenson spoke to an enthusiastic audience at Winter Convocation. The former aide to the late President Kennedy spoke to faculty and students about the recent presidential election and gave some insights into the future of American politics.

The internationally famous Norman Luboff Choir performed for an appreciative audience on February 16, as part of the West Georgian Mutual Concert Series.

The Preservation Hall Jazz Band entertained a spirited audience on February 23, with music in the "dixieland" tradition.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT ASSOCIATION

The 1968-69 academic year has seen the Student Government Association actively involved in many areas. SGA has sought to establish more personal contact with the Student Body by encouraging non-SGA members to participate on SGA committees.

The group has worked with Alpha Phi Omega in establishing a Book Exchange, participated in the establishment of the Honor Commission and the Traffic Appeals Court and initiated the Teacher-Course Evaluation.

Presently, the main objectives of the SGA include broadening the Student Government representation structure, increasing the responsibility of the Student Judicial System, and attaining greater student participation in the academic community.

Noteworthy among the projects which functioned with SGA approval was the SCAN program. The Student Community Action Now plan was conceived to involve students in the real world. All campus organizations were urged to participate in any way they could. Concrete activities, such as efforts to establish a Day Care Center and to help tutor in the public schools, resulted from this.

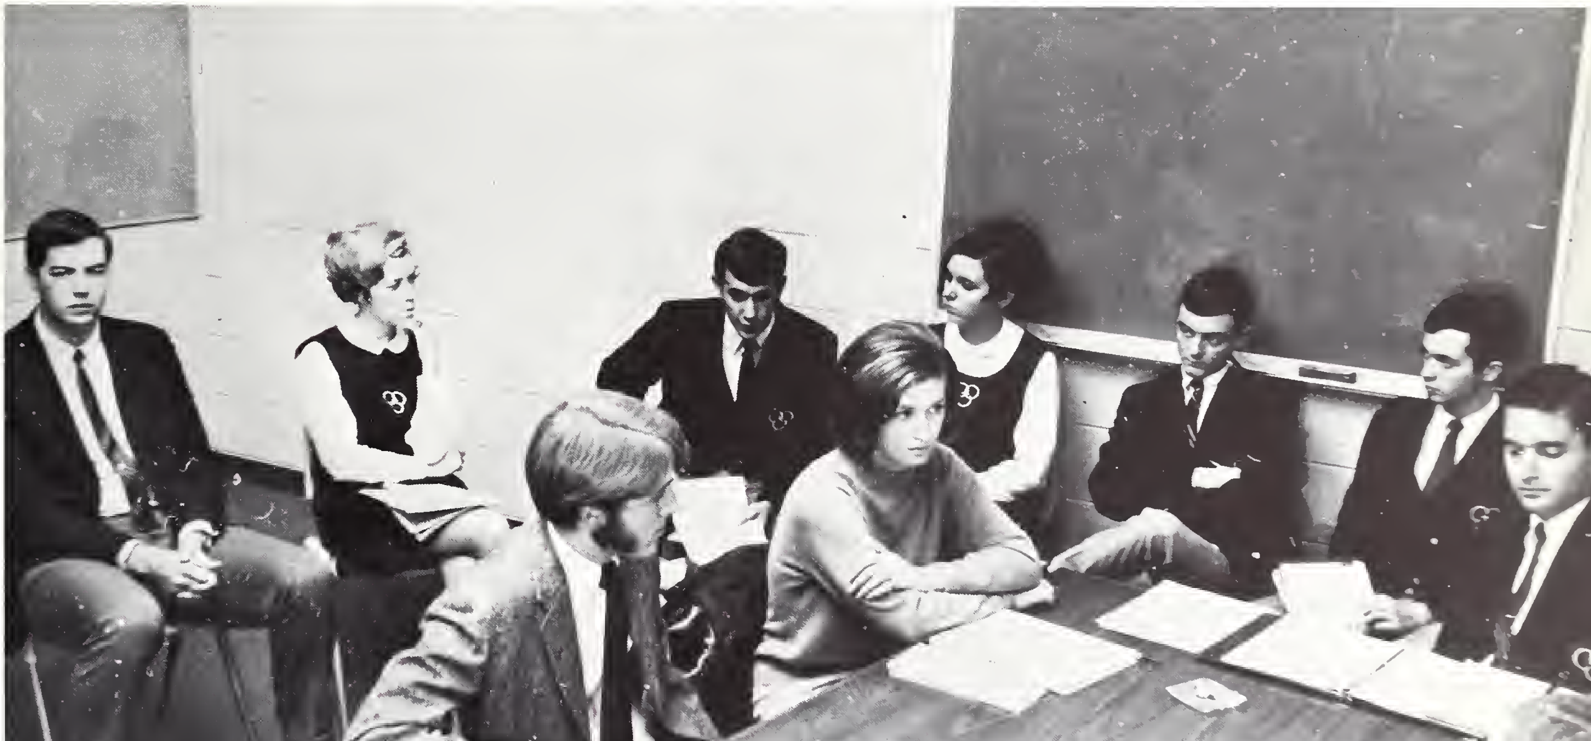
The Union is governed by the College Union Board which is composed of ten voting members — six students and four faculty or administration representatives. In addition, the Board includes two ex-officio members — the Director of Student Activities and the student Superintendent of Union Activities.

SLAUGHTER DIRECTS UNION PROGRAM COUNCIL FOR SECOND TERM

The Union Program Council is composed of the chairmen of the various student program committees and serves to coordinate the various Union-sponsored programs and activities. The committees working with the Director of Student Activities and staff initiate and develop activities for all members of the college community.



PROGRAM COUNCIL MEMBERS: Aimee Slaughter (Chairman), Mike Atchley, Frank Gibson, Laura Tucker, Judy Long, Donna Puckett, Rose Ann Billingsley, Rick Cook.

DELTA PHI BETA: FRESHMAN WOMEN'S HONOR SOCIETY

The Freshman Women's Honor Society began its year's activity with a joint meeting with the Accolade in the Fall. The club engaged in calendar sales, tutoring, serving as campus guides, contributing to high school public relationships, and working with the book exchange with Alpha Phi Omega. Officers were Beverly Smith, Brenda Holmes, Beverly Beck, Linda Anglin, Judy Preston, and Connie Whithead. Miss Ann Mackey was sponsor. The club purpose is to promote intelligent living and to encourage superior scholastic attainment among freshman women.

Members: Brenda Alexander, Linda J. Anglin, Mary K. Ayers, Beverley Beck, Lauren Carrall, Yvette Custella, Elizabeth Davis, Judith Eichenberger, Barbara E. WOMEN'S EXECUTIVE DORM COUNCIL WORKS FOR SELF-DIRECTION

The Women's Executive House Council, representatives from every women's residence hall, made tremendous strides in the 1968-69 school term toward their goal of obtaining true adult status and responsibility for the long-imprisoned women of West Georgia College. The Mandeville House experiment with later curfew hours ended and proved that the fuller freedoms were workable. With the opening of the new women's dormitory, one wing was established as a 1:30 curfew dorm.

ALPHA PHI OMEGA SERVICE FRATERNITY

The Alpha Phi Omega is the most representative inter-collegiate fraternity in the United States. It is a service fraternity whose national membership exceeds 80,000. The club worked with Delta Phi Beta to have a student book exchange at the end of Fall quarter. Mike Jones, Wesley Bellamy, Dick Spahos and Wayne Bearden are officers.

MEMBERS: Mike Janes, Wesley Bellamy, Duanne Bearden, Dick Spahos, James Self, James Marris, Carltan Crawfard, Jahn Waskey, Rusty Hartan, Ranald Harris, Richard Lave, Walter Lee, Edward Lacy, Jahn Borlis, Danald Masan, James Madden, Millard Walton, Leanard Odam, Thamas Greer, Philip Arthur, William Carrall, Jr., Thomas Bentan, Jahn Lawes, Bennett Wilson, Mark Elliat, Rabert Sallar, Fred Groover, Gregary Stephens.

This season the Braves floored a surprisingly improved basketball team. Coach Jan Bennett spent a good bit of his time last year recruiting basketball players throughout the United States.

These boys came from Kentucky, South Carolina, and as far away as Indiana. This year's team not only had more speed but it also had the much needed height that last year's team lacked. This team made a strong showing in the GIAC this season.

The West Georgia cheerleaders continued to add pep to the athletic activities of the college. Besides actually encouraging the spirit of fans at the games, the girls also publicized Brave athletic events with signs and posters.

The Bravettes, West Georgia's drill team under the direction of Mrs. Dorothy Spell, performed at all WGC home games. Their fine military routines, performed with a modern dance flavor drew them an invitation to perform at an Atlanta Hawks basketball game.

This year, the West Georgia Majorette Corps was begun. Organized by several freshman coeds interested in twirling, the girls drew much applause performing at Brave basketball games.

LONG DISTANCE

Coach Gary Wilson took four members of West Georgia's 1968-69 Long Distance team to New Orleans, La. on Feb. 15 to participate in a 26 mile, 385 yard marathon run. Kenny Duke led Brave runners by placing fifth out of fifteen. Other Brave finishers were: Chris Mullins, Tom Crofton, and Mike Terrell, who placed sixth, ninth, and twelfth, respectively. Coach Wilson voiced optimism in the future when he stated that it is an accomplishment, just to be able to finish a marathon.

Ken Duke, Tom Crofton, Mike Terrell, Chuck Moody, Chris Mullis (Long Distance Men).

Under third year Coach Gary Wilson the WGC track and field team strove for its third straight GIAC title. With fine coaching and a winning tradition, the future looks bright.

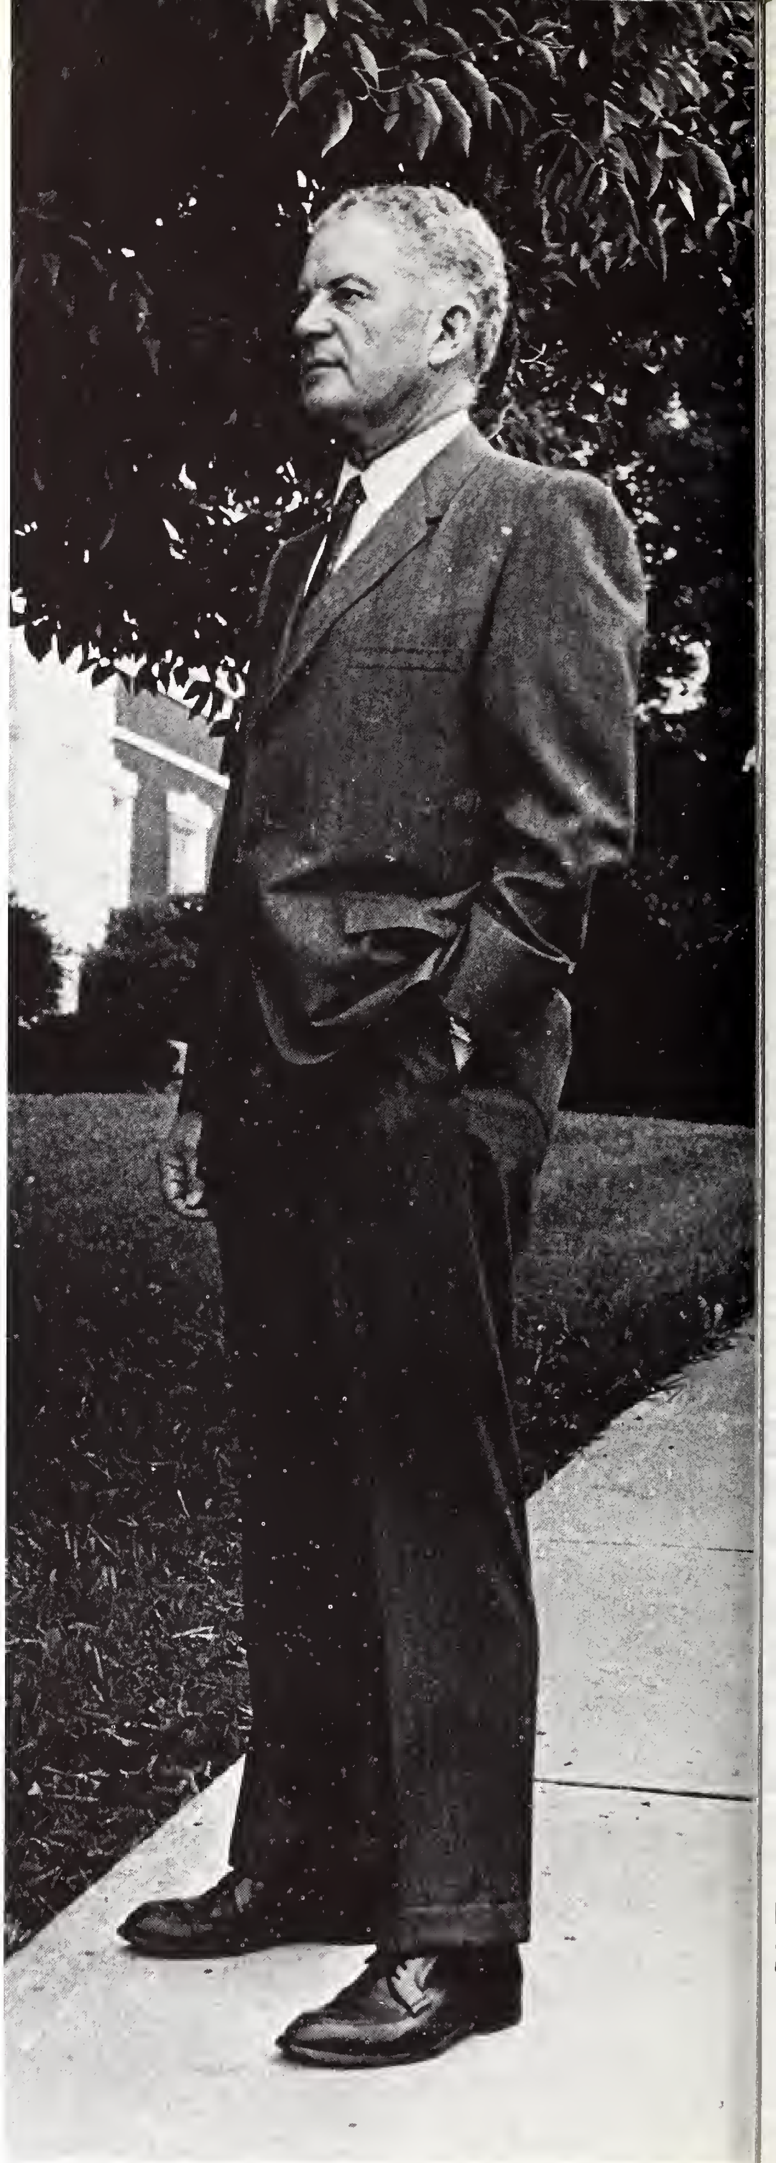
PRESIDENT BOYD STEERS VIGOROUS COLLEGE GROWTH

DR. JAMES E. BOYD
President of the college



Arriving at West Georgia College from the Georgia Institute of Technology where he was outstanding as a scientist, scholar, and an academic administrator, Dr. James E. Boyd assumed the role of President of the college in August 1961, and since that time he has steered the institution throughout a period of remarkable growth.

By becoming a member of the original faculty of West Georgia College, Dr. Boyd began his professional academic career. Holding his Bachelor of Arts degree in mathematics from the University of Georgia Master of Arts in mathematics from Duke University and Ph.D. degree in physics from Yale University, Dr. Boyd continued his career at Tech following his marriage to Elizabeth Reynolds Cobb, a native of Carrollton. Always active in his position as an educational leader, Dr. Boyd has also contributed leadership in civic, educational, religious, and business activities on the local, state, and larger levels. Serving as vice-chairman of Ga. Science and Technology Commission and chairman of its Task Force of Oceanography, he has been a major force in Georgia's entry in the oceanography field. A member of St. Margaret's Episcopal Church, he serves on the Standing Committee of the Diocese of Atlanta and has twice served as a deputy to the General Convention of the Church.

Setting the pace with his own professional growth, Dr. Boyd has continued to lead West Georgia College to greater academic excellence and physical expansion. The office of the President of West Georgia College requires that its holder be a man of vision and enterprise. A mere glance at West Georgia testifies that Dr. James E. Boyd is just such a man.

DIVISION OF EDUCATION proposed two new programs this year, subject to approval of the Board of Regents. One program offers students a Masters degree in School Administration; while the other program offers a six-year study in Counseling and Guidance. Within the Education Division, two new departments were added: the Department of Specialized School Personnel and the Department of Teacher Education. The Department of Specialized School Personnel offers programs in Counselor Education, Administration, Supervision, Library Science, and Student-Teacher Sequence. The Teacher Education Department offers degrees in Early Childhood Education, Elementary Education, Junior High, and Secondary Education. The Department of Psychology seeks to guide the student to understand himself and his culture, to provide service courses for other programs, and to provide clinical services for students and for referrals from community agencies, including the public schools. The Department of Physical Education continued to grow to meet the needs of an expanding college. This year the intramural sports program was made-up of teams from the dorms to encourage participation by a larger number of students. The Physical Education Department is made up of four areas: Men's P.E., Women's P.E., Intramurals, and Services.

DIVISION OF HUMANITIES consists of the departments of English, Philosophy, Fine Arts, and Foreign Languages. In the summer of 1968, the Division of Humanities awarded its first three Master of Art degrees in English. The English Department continued to make its courses meaningful to the student by combining the reading of literature and the writing of composition into a new course for freshmen. The growth of the Humanities Division was demonstrated by the addition of the Department of Philosophy. The Philosophy Department seeks to give the student comprehensive principles of reality in general and practical wisdom. This year the Department of Fine Arts combined the study of art and music into one course. The objective of the Fine Arts Department is to aid the student in gaining an understanding and appreciation of the arts. The Foreign Languages Department offers courses in French, Spanish, and German, with majors offered in French and Spanish. Upon the completion of the Classroom Arts Building, the Department of Foreign Languages will provide a new language laboratory.

DIVISION OF SCIENCE AND MATHEMATICS contains the Departments of Chemistry, Mathematics, Geology, Physics, and Biology. The division participated in the Georgia Science Teachers' Project which is designed to increase the number of physical science teachers in Georgia high schools. The Mathematics Department and the Physics Department moved into a new building. The Department of Physics was presented a National Science Foundation Grant to equip a laboratory for undergraduate research. A laboratory in Nuclear Spectroscopy was completed this year. The new computer center is located within the Mathematics-Physics building, and courses were offered in Computer Science. A new Biology-Chemistry building was planned for the near future. The Chemistry Department added new courses and new equipment to give students a better opportunity to increase their knowledge of Chemistry. The Department of Geology is a new department in the Science and Mathematics division, and a Geology major was offered this year. The Biology Department offered Biology majors a more varied program of study.

BIOLOGY DEPARTMENT: Robert England, Arthur Gardner, Willie Gunn, Robert Welch, Duane Porter, Robert Lampton, Dexter Byrd, William Maples, and Virgil Snow.

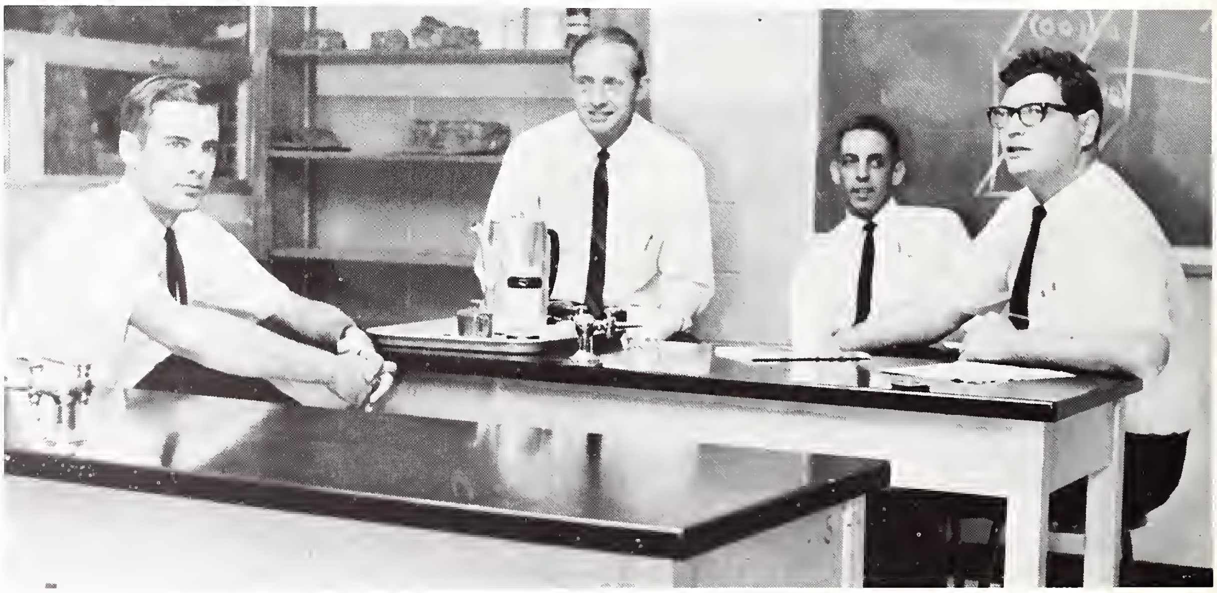
DEPARTMENT OF MATHEMATICS: Terry Bailey, Ray Bague, Marian Crider, James B. Crawell, James Del Valle, Joseph Diestel, Alfred Duquette, H. S. Hahn, Edith Maxwell, Chatty Pittman, Vernan Zander.

DEPARTMENT OF PHYSICS: Herman W. Bayd, David Bradberry, Lucille Garman, Henry Maare, Babby Pawell.

DEPARTMENT OF GEOLOGY: Rager Austin, Thamas Crawfard, Jack Medlin, Marcus Marehead.



DIVISION OF SOCIAL SCIENCE moved into its new building this year and experimented with new Audio Visual equipment. The division expanded its international program by orienting a Faculty-Student Exchange Program with certain Latin American schools. The Social Science Division includes the Departments of History, Political Science, Sociology, and Geography. The History Department offers an A.B. and a Master's degree. The Department of Political Science offers an A.B. in Political Science. The Sociology Department attempts to give the student a workable, as well as a scientific approach to social relationships in the real world. The Department of Geography, though it does not offer a major, continued to offer courses of interest and value to West Georgia College students. The Geography Department is located in the new Social Science building.

Dr. Huck

DEPARTMENT OF HISTORY: Livia V. Barbera, Thamas Bryson, Leanard Carter, George Clarke, Rabert Claxtan, Mitt Canerly, Jr., Roderick Canrad, Sylvia Caak, Mollie Davis, Gardan Finnie, Theadare Fitz-Simons, James Griffin, Robert Hersch, Eugene Huck, Ben Kennedy, Edward Krebs, Edward Neal, Jaseph Sedlak, Melvin Steely.

DIVISION OF BUSINESS AND ECONOMIC STUDIES comprises the Departments of Business Administration, Economics, and Business Education. The Business and Economic Studies Division is the largest division on the West Georgia College campus, having more students enrolled than any other division. There was a large increase in faculty members to meet the demands of the expanding division. The Department of Economics offered several new courses to better prepare Economics majors for graduate study. The Business Administration Department offers majors in Accounting and Finance and in Marketing and Management. The Department of Business Education, with a substantially increased enrollment, offered a Bachelor of Science degree to majors in Business Education.

Dr. J. Mark Miller

DEPARTMENT OF BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION: J. Lincoln DeVillier, H. M. Fulbright, Marjorie Guy, Richard Honey, William Royals, Naomi Satterfield, Carol Scott, Hugh Sorrell, Asgar Talukdar, Warren Walker.

DEPARTMENT OF BUSINESS EDUCATION: Jewell Bryson, Roberta Gibson, Linda Middleton, Dora Peete.

DEPARTMENT OF ECONOMICS: James Adams, Richard Guynn, Rollin Longford, Glen Moore, Robert Morrow, Robert Vichos.

I am . . .
grateful . . .
to a lot of people,
happy . . .
that a job has been completed,
contented . . .
that the task was done well, and . . .

I am tired.
